

Research Impact: what it means and how to go about it

Increasingly, those working in the health and medical research sector are being asked to demonstrate the impact of their work. But for many of us, the term Research Impact is relatively new and what it means, how to capture it, and how to communicate it, are unclear. At this event, we are excited to welcome Tamika Heiden from the Research Impact Academy, to help us develop the skills we need to successfully navigate the pathway to impact. We will also be joined by a panel representing diverse research stakeholders to provide insights into how we can communicate impact to them in a meaningful way. Join us for an evening of good food and drinks, new skills, and new connections!

When: Thursday 26 September 2019

Time: 5.30 to 8.00 pm

Where: The Primus Hotel, 339 Pitt Street, Sydney

Inclusions: An expert speaker, informative panel, good food & drinks, and plenty of networking with women across our sector

Registration: Essential via our website – spaces are limited

Cost (excl GST): FW Members - $43, FW Guests - $70

For all the details and to register visit our website: www.franklinwomen.com.au

What is Franklin Women? We are a social enterprise that aims to create a health and medical research sector where we all can thrive. We aim to bring together like-minded women to create new career connections, offer professional and personal development opportunities and to have a bit of fun, too! Want to find out what we are all about? Come to one of our events, sign up to our monthly e-newsletter, or follow us on Twitter and Facebook.

Warmest thanks to our event partner

